9:30 AM

3. Recommendation as submitted by Supervisors Ridley-Thomas and Knabe: Instruct the Commercially Sexually Exploited Children (CSEC) Integrated Leadership Team and the CSEC Unified Operational Model, the two new entities proposed by the Chief Executive Officer, to meet and report back to the Board in writing within 60 days with a proposed plan and timeline for expanding the First Responder Protocol into the County's unincorporated areas and contract cities, recommendations on how to enlist the participation of the cities that operate their own police departments and a list of the crimes that minors, who are identified as CSEC, are arrested for most often, along with prevalence rates. (Relates to Agenda No. P-1) (15-5164)

This item was taken up with Item No. P-1.

Susan Abrams, Reverend Bob Gay, Marji Iacovetti, Kay Buck, Robert Lucas, Eric Preven and Arnold Sachs addressed the Board.

Fesia Davenport, Interim Executive Director of the Office of Child Protection, Captain Merrill Ladenheim, Sheriff's Department, and Mary Wickham, Interim County Counsel, addressed the Board and responded to questions. Michelle Guymon, Director, Child Trafficking Unit, Probation Department, and Diane Iglesias, Senior Deputy Director, Department of Children and Family Services, were also present.

Supervisor Ridley-Thomas made an amendment to his and Supervisor Knabe's joint motion to instruct the Commercially Sexually Exploited Children (CSEC) Integrated Leadership Team ~~and the CSEC Unified Operational Model~~, the ~~two~~ new ~~entities~~ entity proposed by the Chief Executive Officer, to meet and report back to the Board in 60 days.

Supervisor Knabe made a motion to direct the Interim County Counsel to prepare an ordinance for publication of the names of individuals convicted of soliciting prostitution within the County to be placed on next week's Board agenda.

Supervisor Kuehl instructed the Interim County Counsel to ensure that the language in the ordinance does not refer to children as being prostitutes, and to report back with information as to whether the County might be vulnerable to any litigation for posting names and pictures of people within the timeframe to appeal a conviction and consider whether it is appropriate to include loitering with the intent of soliciting.

Supervisor Ridley-Thomas instructed the Interim County Counsel to consider and report back on whether there is a material legal issue or need to distinguish between a person who purchases sex with a child versus an adult in the proposed ordinance and whether it should more explicitly tie the purchase of sex with a child to statutory rape.

After discussion, on motion of Supervisor Knabe, seconded by Supervisor Antonovich, on Agenda Item No. P-1 the Chief Executive Officer and Interim County Counsel's reports were received and filed; the Board adopted the Chief Executive Officer's recommendations in relation to Commercially Sexually Exploited Children (CSEC); and the Interim County Counsel was instructed to prepare an ordinance for publication of the names of individuals convicted of soliciting prostitution within the County to be placed on the November 10, 2015 Board agenda, with consideration that the language in the ordinance does not refer to children as being prostitutes, consideration and report back to the Board on whether the County might be vulnerable to any litigation for posting names and pictures of people within the timeframe to appeal a conviction and consideration if appropriate to include loitering with the intent of soliciting in the ordinance, and report back on whether there is a material legal issue or need to distinguish between a person who purchases sex with a child versus an adult and whether it should more explicitly tie the purchase of sex with a child to statutory rape.
